

Joel A. Katz Music & Entertainment Business Program at KSU Welcomes Berklee College of Music!

This first time collaboration between KSU and the renowned Berklee College of Music will include top music and entertainment industry professionals who will be available to field questions from and network with those in attendance.

Panelists: Ed Roland, lead singer, Collective Soul, Berklee Alum
Mark Bryan, lead guitar, Hootie and the Blowfish
Shanti Das, PressReset.me, Former Executive VP of Urban Marketing and Artist Development, Universal Motown
Tony Rich, Contemporary R&B Singer/Songwriter
Duncan Freeman, Music Technology Professional and Entrepreneur

Date: Friday, March 18

Time: 1:00 - 3:00 PM

Place: Prillaman Hall Room 1105
(New Health Science Building)

Faculty, staff and students from Berklee College of Music and Kennesaw State will attend this event. The event is free and open to the entire KSU community.

Questions? Contact Keith Perissi at (770) 335-8484